The fun lasts longer when safety is in the driver’s seat.

When you’re the driver of a personal watercraft, you need to take the safety of your passengers personally.

As the “captain,” you are not only responsible for adhering to the safety rules respecting personal watercraft use, but also for ensuring your passengers are wearing the appropriate protective equipment and riding gear.

First of all, you and your passengers are required to wear an approved personal flotation device (PFD) certified for use with a personal watercraft. Also, a wetsuit and/or response bitter will provide adequate protection to the lower part of the body. You can suffer severe internal injuries if water is forced into a lower body cavity as a result of being in the water or being near the jet thrust nozzle. Remember that normal swimwear cannot appropriately protect against forceful water entry. Finally, extra protective equipment such as footwear, gloves and goggles is also recommended. The fun lasts longer when safety is in the driver’s seat.

You can find all of these items at an authorized Sea-Doo dealer online at store.sea-doo.com.

“Wakeskating is about self expression, so it’s important that everything you wear is comfortable and moves with you. The more comfortable you are, the more you’ll want to ride.”

With countless video parts and contest wins to his credit, as well as a Wakeskater of the Year title and co-ownership of his own brand, Remote Wakeskates, Ben Horan is most definitely living the dream.

And readily admits Sea-Doo helped get him there. As a child, long before he became a sponsored rider, a Sea-Doo was actually the very first purchase Horan made with his paychecks from a local skateboard shop. “This was a wise decision. Over the years that followed, that Sea-Doo along with an abundance of natural talent and hard work, helped push Horan to the top of the sport, and earned the respect of both fans and peers.

“Ben is a grounded, humble human being that comes from an incredible family,” says renowned sports photographer Josh Letchworth. “They are supportive of one another, eclectic by nature and go with the flow, all of which make up who Ben is as a person and how he approaches his wakeskating. “His commitment to skateboarding most of his life obviously plays a huge role in his riding as well. Ben sees lines and tricks that many can’t visualize. He’s calm, confident, sets his intention and has been rewarded greatly because of it.”

“Though he’s come a long way from that kid at the skate shop, Horan hasn’t wavered in his choice of a Sea-Doo to get the job done. “It’s just super user-friendly,” he says of his preferred WAKE 155. “When I first got into wakeskating my girlfriend was driving me. You get a ton of time on the water behind a Sea-Doo. It’s just really awesome.”

Horan also gives high marks to the WAKE’s Ski Mode cruise control (“it’s always the perfect speed”), the advantage of a tow pylon to keep the towrope out of the craft’s jet wash, and Sea-Doo’s renowned Intelligent Brake and Reverse. “When a rider falls, most people do like a hot lap to get back,” says Horan. “That just ruins the water, sending rollers down your line. With the brake you can stop and just turn right around, pick up the rider, and get back to business. It’s so perfect.”

Even the WAKE’s wakes received praise. “It’s a fun little roller to do tricks on. For beginners, that’s the best way to learn board control, just hopping around on the wake and figuring it out. “That’s how I learned all my tricks.”

At only 26 years of age, Georgia native Ben Horan is at the top of the wakeskating world.

JAMES BUSHELL
Professional Sea-Doo Racer

Without question the rider to beat in Pro Runabout contests around the world, this athletic Brit with the model looks has become the new face of Sea-Doo performance by riding his Sea-Doo RXP-X 260 to nine championship victories over the past three years. The highlights include a back-to-back, double — winning both the 2011 and 2012 IJSBA Pro Open and Pro GP World Championships.

“I love riding the Sea-Doo RXP-X 260”, says Bushell. “The handling is so superior to everything else on the track. I have won my fair share of championships in the past, but now with the RXP-X and the support of Les Cooke (head of Sea-Doo Centre and arguably the most renowned Sea-Doo watercraft racing tuner on the planet), our effort is at a different level. I can go to any race in the world and feel confident we are going to be at the front of the pack. It is really fun times to be racing a Sea-Doo.”

One of the most approachable big-name, professional-watercraft racers in the paddock area, Bushell radiates a low-key, down-to-earth demeanor that is inviting to fans. But make no mistake, deep down resides a burning desire to win, and win everything — every single time he is on the water. “I love this sport, I love meeting different people all around the world, but obviously the main goal is to win”, he emphasizes. “I just love racing. I love going down the start and grabbing the holeshot at 80 mph. You can’t beat that feeling!” Bushell has an added incentive to succeed. He’s the director of his own UK-based BRP dealership, 158-Performance. “It’s pretty cool to have a customer come into the store, or stop by our booth at the London Boat Show, and see a huge poster of me on the wall or in the brochure and ask, ‘Is that you?’ and be able to say ‘yes.’ They see me on the machine, they see me wearing the Sea-Doo Performance X-Team wetsuit, PFD, gloves, booties, everything. It’s cool!”

The Sea-Doo Move family of trailers won the prestigious NMEA Innovation Award in the watersports equipment category for “making launching and retrieving faster and easier, while keeping safety in mind.”

The Sea-Doo Move family of trailers offer user-friendly features and are engineered to fit the hull of your Sea-Doo watercraft perfectly, making loading and unloading really simple. Choose the Sea-Doo Move that suits your need.

A watercraft trailer does much more than get your Sea-Doo from your home to the water. Your Sea-Doo is a premium piece of high-performance hydrodynamics and should be protected by something of equal quality, such as a Sea-Doo Move Trailer. The most active Sea-Doo rider may spend 50 days a year on the water. That means 365 days, or 8760+ hours your Sea-Doo is NOT on the water.

The rest of that time your Sea-Doo rests on top of your trailer on its way to the water or back from it, or waiting for the next adventure. Ensure your watercraft is cradled by something of equal quality, such as a Sea-Doo Move Trailer. Owning a quality Sea-Doo Move Trailer will help ensure your next trip to the local ride spot or 100+ miles family trip is trouble free.

— Willy Carmine, Route One Motorsports President.
